THURSDAY 2 DECEMBER 2010 -
SUNDAY 9 JANUARY 2011

Tickets from £10 to £13.50 (children)
and £19.50 to £21.50 (adults)

The Lichfield Garrick presents a spectacular new production of the timeless tale,
Peter Pan by J.M.Barrie.
Adapted and Directed by Ian Adams.

A magical Christmas story for the whole family

By arrangement with The Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity and Samuel French Limited.

Starring CBBC's Barney Harwood as the boy who refuses to grow up!

Lichfield's favourite funny man, Barnaby returns as Midshipman Smee and he is joined by another Lichfield favourite, Ian Adams, as the dastardly Captain Hook.

Amazing adventures are in store for Wendy Darling and her brothers, John and Michael, as they fly away with Peter Pan and his tiny fairy Tinkerbell, to the magical world of Neverland.

Witness daring deeds as Peter rescues Princess Tiger Lily from the dangerous pirate crew of the Jolly Roger. Gaze in wonder as Wendy meets the beautiful Mermaids and the creatures of the Lost Lagoon. Meet Peter's gang of Lost Boys in their secret underground hideout and hold your breath as Peter comes face to face with the infamous but flamboyant Captain Hook!

With sparkling new costumes, stunning scenery and dazzling special effects, this all singing, all dancing, high-flying new production of J.M.Barrie's classic story is the perfect Christmas treat for the whole family.

Oh, did we mention the crazy life size CROCODILE?

Ian Adams as Captain Hook
